

At the burfall

Heard a voyce from heauen sayng vnto me, wyte, blessed are the dead which dye in the lord: Euen so saith the spirit, that they rest from their labours.

Priest.

Let vs praye. We comend in to thy handes of mercy (most mercyfull father) þy soule of this oure brother departed. R. and his body we commit to the earth, beseching thyne infinite goodnes, to geue vs grace to liue in thy feare and loue, and of the dead.

and to dye in thy fauoure: that when the Iudgement shall come which thou hast committed to thy welbe-loued sonne, both this our brother and we may be founde acceptable in thy syght, and receaue that blessing, which thy welbeloued sonne shall then pronounce to all that loue and feare the, sayng: Come my blessed Childzen of my father: receaue the kyngdome prepared for you before the begynnyng of the worlde: Graunt this mercyfull father for the honour of Iesu Christe our onely sauour, mesdiator & aduocate. Aun. Amen. Almighty God, we geue the hertye thanks for thy seruaunt, whome thou hast deliuered from miseries of this wretched world, from the body of death & all temptation, & as we trust, hast brought his soule which he comitted in to thy holy handes, in to sure consolacion and rest: Graunt we beseeche the, that at the day of Iudgemēt his soule & all the soules of thy electe, departed out of this life, may with vs & we with them, fully receaue thy promises & be made perfecte all together througħ þy glorious resurrection of thy sonne

Iesus Christ oure lord. Aunsw. Amen.
